About us

The Consortium of lesbian, gay, bisexual and trans voluntary and community organisations has been working since 1998 to support LGBT+ communities.

With a dedicated team of staff, trustees and volunteers who are all passionate about seeing the LGBT sector thrive, LGBT Consortium works to strengthen existing groups and to nurture new ones. Always collaboratively, never competitively.

Here's how we work to build a stronger LGBT third sector:

Membership & Engagement

Support our Members to thrive and grow by offering them a package of practical support through our Engagement Team

Voice & Communication

Listen and consult with our Members and ensure their voices are heard

Collaboration and Networks

Lead the sector in sustainable ways of working and bring our Member together through specialist networks and partnerships

Benefits

Your organisations membership with LGBT Consortium enables you to access a range of benefits including;

- Create and edit a profile on our Members Directory
- Promote your organisations paid opportunities on our Work in the Sector pages
- Access our specialist networks
- Access our Trustee Brokerage - matching your employees with our Members.
- Social media exposure on Twitter and Facebook

Our e-bulletin sends monthly e-news to all of our Members, supporters, partners and anyone interested in the LGBT Sector. It is a mixture of our news and your news.

We also support our Corporate Members to build lasting relationships with our Members. Get in touch so that we can create something tailored to your organisations values.

Don't just take our word for it

Keep in touch

“The LGBT Consortium gives an independent, national and collective voice to small local LGBT communities”

Consortium Member

“Being part of a consortium creates more opportunities, more partnerships and collaborations”

Consortium Member

“Advertising with the LGB&T consortium was fantastic. With 95% of job applications coming as a direct result from the advert, advertising on the Consortium website has been very successful. I highly recommend using the service ”

Trade

We are always working hard to bring your organisation more and more benefits but in the meantime please let us know how we can best support your organisation.
